

COBALT TESTING

The Pennsylvania Harness Racing Commission will be conducting random cobalt testing on samples being collected at our various racetracks starting May 1, 2015.

Warnings will be issued to horsemen whose findings are above a 25 parts per billion until June 1, 2015 when the Commission will officially adopt a policy identifying findings and thresholds leading to a possible penalty for violations.